Jimmy Siska Services Held

The Holy Ghost Catholic Church was well filled at 11 a.m. Monday, November 2nd, when many friends gathered to attend the Requiem High Mass conducted for Jimmy Siska, by the Rev. Denis Fleming.

Following the services the cortege proceeded to the Coleman Catholic cemetery where interment was made.

Prayers were said at the family home at 8 p.m. Sunday. Hall's Funeral Service Ltd. of Blairmore, were in charge of arrangements.

Jimmy, 16 years of age, was born in Coleman, where he was now a student in grade 11. The lad worked as a ticket taker at the Coleman Romy Theatre and after having completed his duties there Friday evening, October 30th went to the Coleman school auditorium about 10:30 p.m. where a junior high school Halloween party was being held. The auditorium being on the second floor of the school, Jimmy climbed one flight of steps and collapsed in the school hallway where he died.

Jimmy had been to Rochester in February of 1957 where he underwent a heart surgery at the Mayo Clinic.

The trip for the operation was arranged through the efforts of the Rev. Denis Fleming, and the Coleman CYO, and Lethbridge Green Acres Kiwanis Club.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Siska of Coleman, he is survived by two sisters, Margaret of Coleman and Doreen of Lethbridge, and two brothers, George of Lethbridge and Andrew of Calgary.

Chick Roughhead New President Curling Club

Coleman Curling Club held a meeting last week when a new slate of officers for the coming season was elected to office.

President of the club will be Chick Roughhead, while vice-president will be George Jenkins, and secretary-treasurer, Bill Kilmner.

On the executive committee are Dr. Emil Aiello, Roy Upton, Eugene Fahro, Andy Dow and Bill Field.

It was reported at the meeting that the new artificial plant was now installed in the arena, and was in operation, and it was expected that ice would be ready this week. The plant was installed at a cost of some $12,500, and most of the electrical and other work was done voluntarily by members of the club.

The plant services four sheets of artificial ice. The club have also purchased 32 sets of matched curling rocks through the Caledonian Club in Calgary.

Although the rink will be open for curling this week the official opening date has been set for November 13th. To mark the opening the club are planning a three-day bonspiel that will get underway with two draws on Friday and will continue through Saturday and Sunday. Thirty-two rinks will be entered in the affair and invitations have been sent out to various clubs and rinks planning to enter, to do so before November 9th.

The club have also requested that persons planning to curl this season turn in their names or the rink name as soon as possible to facilitate matters for the committee in charge.

Dues have been set for the year and will comprise $20.00 for men, $10 for ladies and $5 for high school students. To get advantage of the rate persons must be members of the Coleman Community Sports Association.

A great many men shiver in the cold just because they imagined they had the fire of genius.

Trustees Report On A. S. T. Assn. Convention

John Owen and Clarence Clarke, trustees of the Coleman School District, returned recently from having attended the 53rd convention of the Alberta School Trustees.

In a report to The Journal, Mr. Owen states "the affair was opened by President Mr. Ed Parr, who pointed out that it was the duty of trustees to keep in mind that our schools are operated for our future generation so that they might become useful and upright citizens. We must provide the highest program of education possible," he said, "for all our students."

Senator Cameron said "Much of our community attitude comes from the homes and leads to wrong attitudes in our schools. These break down of standards which may be seen on every hand go unchecked and lead to the attitude of sloppiness, sloppiness, sloppiness and sloppiness."

Idea of discipline is to get away with as much as you can—evade rules and regulations and break laws—it's during it's smart.

The idea to work hard is something to be shunned and avoided. The cult of softness and lack of fitness is the attitude that encourages triviality and amusement and depreciates serious mental effort. If this continues we are surely going to take a back seat, so let's make our town and schools a place of pride. Most of our unemployed are people that did not get a chance to get the education that is possible today.

Instead of having the three R's we should have five R's in school—namely, reading, 'riting 'rithmetic, responsibility and respectability. If we are to keep ahead in our country here are a few figures we should keep in mind. For elementary schools we need an increase of 60 per cent for accommodation and for high schools 100 per cent. Remember that we have two roads to follow—education or destruction. Education costs money, destruction costs people.

The teaching profession appears to be on the increase as the convention were told that 541 teachers came to Alberta from other countries and provinces last year, also that we have over 400 of our students taking teacher training in our universities. Teachers' salaries have increased this year, 1959-1960 by 9.25 per cent.

Well Baby Clinics Are Increased

Miss Joyce Matheson, district health nurse of the Chinook health unit offices in Blairmore announced last week that the Well Baby Clinics will now be held twice per month in Blairmore and Coleman, instead of once per month.

The clinics will be held all day from 10:30 a.m. until 11:30 p.m. and from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Polio shots for adults will also be available at the clinics.

In Coleman the clinics will be held in the Town office on Tuesdays instead of Thursdays, and in Blairmore at the Armory, Thursdays. Dates set for the clinics at Coleman are November 10th and 24th, and in Blairmore, the dates are set for November 12th and 26th.

Laura Trotz Heads Lady Curlers

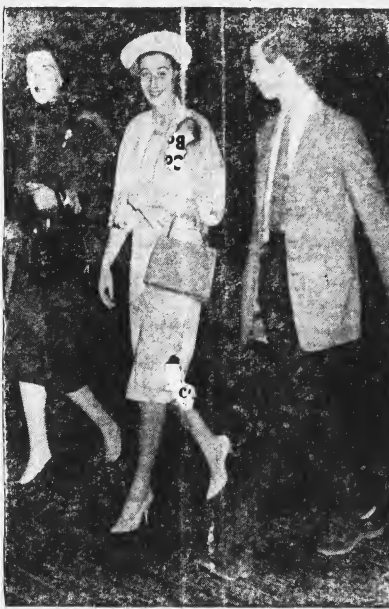

The Coleman Ladies' Curling Club met this week when a new slate of officers were elected to head the group for the forthcoming season.

Elected to office were: President, Laura Trotz, Vice-president, Delina Pow, Secretary, Eleanor Duncan, Treasurer, Isabel Splevak, Jean Field will head the draw and bonspiel committee and Bunce Fraser will take charge of the kitchen committee.

The club have requested that any ladies planning to curl should turn their names into any member of the executive on or before the 15th of November as the club plan to start curling on the 16th.

Curling nights will be Mondays and Thursdays.

The club will hold a bake sale and rummage sale at the curling rink on Tuesday, December 1st from 2:30 to 5 p.m. All are invited to the sale. Proceeds are to be used for club work.

Princess Alexandra Returns from Australian Tour—Her Royal Highness Princess Alexandra seen with her mother, the Duchess of Kent, and her brother, Prince Michael, when she arrived at London Airport from her two-month tour of Australia and the Far East. The Princess had flown from Istanbul, Turkey, in a Comet 4 jet airliner to London. Since leaving London, the Princess's tour has taken her 35,000 miles around the world in two months. The Princess has visited Australia, Cambodia, Thailand and during the flight home from Thailand, made stops at Delhi in India and Istanbul in Turkey. Before setting out on the last stage of her homeward journey from Istanbul, the Princess spent the earlier part of the day on a sight-seeing tour, visiting the Byzantine Basilica of St. Sophia and the Blue Mosque. Princess Alexandra's next engagement will be early next month (in November) when she will launch the Amer Oriana at Barrow-in-Furness.

Remembrance Day Observed Despite Cold Weather

Near Blizzard conditions and ten above weather did not phase a good attendance of Coleman citizens who turned out this morning to attend Remembrance Day Services conducted by the Coleman Branch of the Canadian Legion. The committee in charge arranged for most of the service to be held indoors due to the cold weather.

Remembrance Day was observed by services held at the various churches. On completion of the services many attended the affair conducted in the Romy theatre where the program opened with O'Canada. Chairman Frank Aboussafy gave a short address followed by the service given by the Rev. Rod McAulay. An impressive address was also given by Honorary Pres. of the Legion, D.B. Young, after which the grand military tattoo was given by the RCME band under the direction of Fred Beddington. Rev. Rod McAulay completed the service with a prayer. Several hymns were sung including "God Our Help in Ages Past". The parade then re-assembled and proceeded to the Cenotaph where services were held. Under the chairmanship of Mayor Aboussafy the service was given by Rev. McAulay. Wreaths were placed by various organizations after which the RCME fired a salute to the war dead.

On completion of the services the parade returned to the front of the Legion where it dispersed. Members of the Legion and guests then enjoyed a smoker.

Crows Nest Pass Junior Band Fund Campaign

The Crows Nest Pass Junior Band is once again issuing an appeal for operational funds.

The public of the Pass have been very generous in this respect during previous fund raising campaigns, and with the low ebb of economy in our area we feel very fortunate that our band is still in existence. It is only through donations that we can continue to operate, as we can find no organization strong enough to sponsor us.

We do not deem it necessary to expound the virtues of our organization and what it means to our young members. We feel that the Band is greatly appreciated, but occasionally we must prompt the public into conveying their appreciation.

Any donation whether large or small, is gratefully accepted, and a receipt issued for same.

Address any donation to the Secretary of the Crows Nest Pass Junior Band, Blairmore, Alberta.

Parking In Lanes Is Illegal

Numerous complaints have been received by the Coleman Police Department of vehicles being parked in lanes.

Since some of the lanes in Coleman are rather narrow, parking of vehicles poses quite a problem to persons wishing to use the lanes with other vehicles.

It has been pointed out by the Fire Department that this could also cause serious trouble should a fire occur and the fire truck have to make use of the lanes.

The Chief of Police, Ed Corson, has announced that starting immediately, the Coleman Police Department will issue illegal parking tickets to anyone parking or leaving a vehicle parked in a lane.

The trouble with a chronic borrower is that he always keeps everything but his word.

Mayor F. Aboussafy Address K. of C.

The Knights of Columbus Father Lacombe Council celebrated Founder's Day at a grand banquet and dance in the newly-remodelled Catholic hall in Coleman on Saturday evening, October 24th.

Attending the affair were some 95 persons who enjoyed a turkey banquet prepared by the Coleman Catholic Women's League.

A welcome was expressed to the guests of the Knights by Father Denis Fleming of Coleman, after which toasts were proposed to the Pope by Father Tessier of Blairmore, Chaplain of the Council; to the Queen by George Pelletier, of Pincher Creek, and to the Ladies by Bert Powie of Blairmore. A response on behalf of the Ladies was given by Mrs. J. Hogan of Blairmore.

Grand Knight of the Council, John Lloyd of Blairmore, then introduced Mayor Frank Aboussafy of Coleman, who gave an interesting talk on "Religious Ethics in Public Life and Prominent People." The speaker was given a vote of thanks.

The remainder of the evening was spent dancing with Snott's orchestra of Pincher Creek in attendance.

Three Sons Dead, Alberta Woman National Mother

Ottawa, Ont.—When she places a wreath at the National War Memorial on November 11th, a 65-year-old mother from Craigmyle, Alberta will bear the sorrow and the pride of all Canadian mothers who lost sons in war.

Mrs. W. B. Anderson, whose three sons were killed in the RCAP, has been chosen to represent Canadian motherhood at the National Remembrance Day ceremony. Along with the Governor-General, the Prime Minister and the Legion's Dominion president, she will place one of the four official wreaths.

All of her sons were air-crew members of the RCAP. Fit-Sgt. James Sangster Anderson, an air-bombardier, was killed in a plane crash in England in October, 1942. Three months later his brother, Flying Officer William Boyd Anderson, pilot, went missing on an operation over Germany. He has no known grave. Fit-Sgt. Lloyd George Anderson was an air gunner who also died over Germany. He is buried at Rheinberg.

This is the fifth year that the Canadian Legion has selected a Silver Cross Mother from outside the Ottawa district. Other mothers have been selected from Vibank, Sask.; Chatham, Ont.; Truro, Nova Scotia; and Coniston, Ont.

All have lost three sons and all sons were air-crew, part of the 17,101 Canadians who were killed in the RCAP.

Mrs. Anderson was accompanied to Ottawa by her 75-year-old husband.

Trading Stamps and Premiums Illegal

Amendments to the general regulations under Licensing of Trades and Businesses Act were passed by Order in Council by the Government of Alberta Tuesday making it illegal to offer trading stamps or other premiums to promote sale of merchandise. The regulations are effective immediately.

Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Industry and Development, told a press conference that three new sections had been added to the general regulations. They read:

15—No business licensed under the Licensing of Trades and Businesses Act shall secretly or otherwise give or offer to give any premium, free goods or use coupons, coupon books, stamps, trading stamps or similar plans for the purpose of furthering the sale of any commodity or service.

16—Opening Day offers by a new business for a period of not more than seven days, including date business commenced, shall not be considered a violation of Section 15 of this regulation.

17—Nothing in this regulation applies to or affects prices or price discounts.

Most of us are beginning to learn that the cost of experience has gone up like everything else.

Interment followed in the Blairmore Union cemetery. Hall's Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Slapak, 59, was born in London, England, and came to Canada in 1921, settling in Blairmore.

She married Charles Slapak, the same year and the couple lived in Blairmore since then. Mrs. Slapak was a member of the Salvation Army. Surviving here are her husband, Charles; two sons, Carl and Trevor; a daughter, Mrs. Don Farquharson of Camrose; three grandchildren, and two sisters, one in London, the other at Melourne, Australia.

Coleman Sports Assn. Hold Semi-annual Meeting

The Coleman Community Sports Association held its semi-annual meeting Sunday, November 1 when reports of various committees were presented.

B. Vandonk was re-appointed as ice-maker for the season and it was decided to open the arena for skating on November 15th.

It was decided that this year skating would be held on Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights and every afternoon from Monday through Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tuesday and Thursdays are reserved for practice of all hockey teams, while hockey games will be held mostly on Saturday nights.

IS COMMUNISM A DEAD ISSUE?

A few years ago everybody was talking about Communism in Canada and the dangers of infiltration. Today (perhaps because nobody wants to be called a witch hunter) you seldom hear boo about them. Does this mean Communism is a dead issue now?

Not according to J. H. Moore of Hamilton, Ont. In a speech to the Traffic Club of Hamilton the other day he warned us not to scoff at the notion that Communists could take over here.

He made his point by showing that at V-J Day the Communists controlled eight million square miles and 10 per cent of the world population, whereas now, without any major war, they hold control over thirteen million square miles and 35 per cent of the world's population.

Mr. Moore then went on to show that many things are happening in Canada today that will pave the way to Communism unless we are watchful. He referred to all sorts of legislation which, while profitable to some, has restrictive results on all.

We are too inclined he said, to give up individual freedoms in order to make a small financial gain or to please one pressure group or another.

Another fact used by Mr. Moore to prove his point was that today there are 200,023 people working for the Dominion government alone—whereas at the very peak of the War it took only 101,765 to administer our affairs.

Mr. Moore says, "Our two older parties are socializing the country as quickly as the voters will accept it."

How does the individual help stop this drift?

Mr. Moore has some suggestions. First, vote every chance you get, after studying the issues. Then be sure to know the name and address of your representative in Ottawa or your provincial capital, and let him have your views. On top of that, Moore would have us all adopt the following four freedoms:

- 1—The freedom to gripe and criticize, particularly at governments.
- 2—The freedom to change jobs.
- 3—The freedom to choose how to spend our own income.
- 4—Freedom to be right, even when what we know to be right is unpopular.

He feels that if we maintain those four freedoms, we'll have gone a long way toward maintaining the four freedoms enunciated by President Roosevelt.

I think he has something there!

Of Many Things

(By Ambrose Hills)

THE IMPORTANCE OF HOME
I have had occasion to spend a good deal of time with older people lately, and in my dealings with them I have found one thing that seems always to come up.

They insist, without exception, that when they look back over their lives the most important memories are of home... the homes they lived in as children, and the homes they provided for their own families. One old man told me sadly that "I guess I put less effort into my home than anything, but got more out of it." He said that if he had it to do over again, he would work just as hard at being a good member of the family circle as he did at being a successful preacher.

That made me think of Maurice Chevalier who, at 70, is creating new and fabulous success. Chevalier has been smart; he has made several fortunes, but he kept his life very simple.

"My life has always centered in my home," he said recently. He spends his money carefully, and most of it goes into his home. None of it goes to bluff others about his wealth. He doesn't gad around. He spends many nights just watching television, and he goes to bed early. "I want to live the kind of life I believe in," he said, "and not the money kind."

It seems to me Chevalier has the right idea. I am pleased that TV seems to be helping to make home a central part of our lives these days, although I wish it could be done without too much TV watching. A nation of citizens raised in good homes is going to be a good nation, and strong.

I read that in China the communists are taking children away from the family as soon as possible and raising them impersonally in communes. I grieve for those children, and for China itself. What millions of fine memories are being destroyed. And worst of all, those who are perpetrating this terrible thing are doing it in the name of humanity. They are convinced they are being virtuous, because they believe that in the long run China will profit from it.

That, to my mind, is the curse of these "isms". They all claim great virtue. They all seem able to commit the most heinous crimes while mouthing pious platitudes about the systems they are building!

Let's hope Canada continues to make home a sacred place.

Canada Savings Bonds, Series '59

Alberta's 'man on the street' still finds his nation's promise-to-pay a 'good thing'—if the eight and a half million dollars he is laying on the line for Canada Savings Bonds Series '59, is any indication of his faith in the nation.

This year, so far, two and a half times as many Albertans are buying bonds over the counters of their banks. Compared to last year the '59 buyer not only is a large number but he is more enthusiastic and buys almost twice as many bonds in his application.

These averages showed up in the first figures released by the Alberta Clearing House at Calgary—over 4800 persons applied at the banks for seven and a half million dollars worth of bonds, '59 series, against 2600 persons who bought barely three million dollars worth last year.

Pictured on payroll deductions through companies and institutions over the million mark, stand about the same at this period as in the '58 series.

David Moore, Calgary organizer for the payroll savings deductions, Canada Savings Bonds, still leads the prairie province region with 122 per cent over last year's figures at this time. The nine other organizers range from 106 per cent to 75 per cent of the '58 totals.

Receives Apostolic Blessing From The Pope

Miss Jo-Ann Maria Montalbetti, Reg.N., of Edmonton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Montalbetti of Coleman, became the bride of Dr. Colin Clarence Hauck of Edmonton son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hauck of Heilsler, Alberta, on Saturday, October 17, 1959.

Rev. Father Denis Fleming officiated at the ceremony at Holy Ghost Church, Coleman, and the marriage received the personal apostolic blessing from Pope John XXIII, signified by a plaque signed by the pope.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of antique taffeta, with a semi-train trimmed with Venice lace, on the neckline, bodice and the front panel of the skirt.

Her chapel length double veil of French illusion net fell from crown headpiece, trimmed with mother of pearl sequins and she carried a bouquet of white roses, centred with a white orchid and surrounded by gold leaves and ivy. Her jewellery was single strand of cultured pearls and matching earrings.

Miss Marjorie Hauck of Heilsler, sister of the Groom, and Miss Joni Rinaldi, Reg.N., of Coleman, bridesmaids, chose identical gowns of pale dusty rose peau de faillie with deeper shade cummerbund with matching pale rose gloves, shoes and audeaux. They carried pink and white carnations, rosebuds, mauve heather and streaming ivy.

Flower girl, Miss Cindy Lee Montalbetti, of Coleman, niece of the bride, wore a short full-skirted frock of pale dusty rose and carried pink and white mums, white rosebuds and white heather.

Mr. Clarence Pat Hauck of Calgary, cousin of the groom, was best man and Roland Coccolone, cousin of the bride, and Russell Montalbetti, brother of the bride, were ushers. Mrs. Youngberg of Hillcrest, organist, and Mrs. Tymashew of Coleman, soloist, provided the wedding music.

At a reception held in the Elks hall, Coleman, at 5:30 p.m. where about 100 guests assembled, Father Fleming proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom. The bride's table was centred with a four-tiered wedding cake made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dora Montalbetti of Banff, and topped with a basket of red and white rosebuds.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Montalbetti wore a sapphire blue silk dress with sapphire and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Hauck, chose a brown suit with mink trim and autumn rust accessories. Yellow roses made up her corsage.

For a honeymoon trip to British Columbia and various United States points, the bride wore a jet black Blin & Blin French broadcloth suit, with a slightly bloused back and trimmed with pure white mink. Her accessories were of black and winter white. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Hauck will reside at 9742 - 105 st., Edmonton.

Out of town guests were from Edmonton, Heilsler, Calgary, Wainwright, Drumheller, Bluffton, Banff, Daysland, Trail, B. C., and Saskatchewan.

Vancouver, B. C.,
Oct. 30, 1959.

Lions Club,
Coleman, Alberta.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed you will find a money order for $65. On this day approx-mately 225 former Crows Nest Pass residents who now live in Vancouver, New Westminster and surrounding districts are renewing old acquaintances. This money is what remains after expenses for this affair were met.

It is our wish that this money be used to swell the Spencer Dunford Heart Fund, but in the event that this fund is over-subscribed we would like you to see that a similar heart fund receives this money order. With it go all the good wishes of those present tonight.

Yours truly,
ALICE KAPALKA.
